Club 50

Always an adventure!

The Latest

Make Merry with Us!

What's the best way to catch up with about 500 of your friends? Club 50's Annual Holiday Party! How much fun is it? Well, if it's any indication, we have customers who join Club 50 just to go to this event. And how can you resist? The Boston Marriott Newton, resplendent in holiday decor, provides the setting for a delicious five-course dinner, followed by an evening of dancing to the wonderful sounds of Soft Touch, the 20-piece orchestra which features our own Dave Burgess, our Lexington Branch Manager. We also have a big-screen TV outside of the ballroom by the bars, showing highlights of our trips from this year. Yes, it's almost like a large wedding reception -- it's so much fun to see everyone, and after all that planning and anticipation it passes by in such a blur! But please do join us on either Wednesday, December 5, or Wednesday, December 12, by sending in your reservation by Friday, November 2, because as you can imagine these parties fill up quickly. Feel free to access the reservation form via this newsletter (on the left) or online on our Club 50 page; there will also be copies available in our branches.

In the meantime, join us for Providence Italian Style on Thursday, October 25 – we have a few seats left – and if you weren't able to come to our New Orleans preview and sign-up event last week, please give us a call or pop us an e-mail if you're interested in our Easy Living in the Big Easy of New Orleans trip happening Monday, April 15, through Friday, April 19, of 2013.

The Club 50 Holiday Party ... it has become the event to see and be seen! We're once again hosting the annual festivities at the Boston Marriott Newton, 2345 Commonwealth Avenue, from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. with dinner served promptly at 6 p.m. There is ample parking at the Marriott; however, if you would rather not drive, we will have bus transportation available from our Bigelow Avenue (East Watertown) branch at 4:30 p.m. and the American Legion Post 440 on California Street in Newton at 4:45 p.m. A reservation is required for bus transportation. And please get your reservation to the Club 50 office by Friday, November 2 – and be one of the nearly 1,000 partygoers to have a delicious meal, catch up with friends, and dance the night away!

Please refer to the Club 50 page on the WSB website for more information. The reservation form is available on the left column of this page – see Forms.

A Beautiful Place by the Sea

We never want summer to end, which is why we're featuring a photo from our late-summer Down East Lobster Bake. So, how was Ogunquit in late August? Beautiful, filling, and wicked busy! We enjoyed a perfectly sunny day, an insanely bountiful luncheon at the relaxing Jonathan's Restaurant, and a few peeks at the quaint downtown, Marginal Way, Perkins Cove and Ogunquit Beach, where we had never seen so many beach umbrellas. The season was in full swing! Many of us chatted about returning next year, perhaps for a matinee at the Ogunquit Playhouse ... right down the street from Jonathan's?

If you want to see more photos of our Down East Lobster Bake as well as many other trips, just click on WSB Photo Album in red on the left. And if you're on Facebook, find us at Watertown Savings Bank-Massachusetts.

On the Go & In the Know

Tell us what you think

Thank you to all of the Club 50 members who responded to our question from the September newsletter: How do you get your ideas for where you want to travel?

The choices and responses were:

1st choice – Club 50, of course! (86%)

2nd: Magazines (14%)

Last place (tie): Friends, Family, TV (no votes)

And congratulations to Mary J. of Watertown, the winner of a $25 gift certificate towards a Club 50 trip!

For this newsletter's question – and your chance at that gift certificate – please respond to our Armchair Traveler survey on the left by November 2.
