The Latest

The Crazy Days of Summer

Club 50's 20th anniversary year has been an absolute whirlwind, especially this summer! So many of our trips are selling out so early on the first day of signup and with such a long waiting list that we're either taking a second bus or hosting a trip twice: Just this month we've already done our Gloucester Lobsterbake day trip two Tuesdays in a row and another day trip to the fabulous Kinky Boots musical just last Sunday.

But we're showing no signs of slowing down! Our first-day-sign-up for our October day trip to Goodspeed Opera House for the musical A Wonderful Life is right around the corner (see "Club 50 Opportunities"), and we have the sold-out NYC weekend in September right before our Ireland adventure (which will make Karen and I miss the Main Office BBQ on September 25, but we will see you at our Lexington Branch on August 28 and our East Watertown [Bigelow] Branch on September 11).

We're also looking ahead to some Holiday Party planning (see "Save the Date") and, of course, more trips: Wait until you see where we're going in Fall 2016 (see "On the Go & In the Know")!

All Aboard for Gloucester!

Jo and Bill Ovoian and Shirley Thompson are all smiles in early August, and why shouldn't they be? They were on the deck of the beautiful 65-foot schooner Thomas E. Lannon on a two-hour sail along Gloucester's coastline, after enjoying a traditional New England Lobsterbake at the Gloucester House Restaurant, where Owner and Manager Lenny Linquata lived up to his reputation as an award-winning raconteur by entertaining our Club 50 members with colorful stories of local history as well as a demonstration on how to eat a lobster.

Our second group enjoyed the same wonderful lobsterbake and stories, but were rained out of the sailboat ride; however, those who answered Lenny's questions correctly won lobsters to take home!
