The Latest

Club 50 Is Full of Mysteries & Surprises!

Surprise! Karen and I love Halloween – can you find us in the photo? It's too easy this year (a little less easy last year as part of Snow White & the Seven Dwarfs, and especially the year before as Dr. Seuss characters The Cat in the Hat and The Lorax)! For those of you who didn't have a chance to stop by for WSB's Employee Halloween contest and have asked to see our costumes, here's a glimpse of the fun we had as the "Happy Halloween" Scrabble team! (And even more fun: That's WSB Bank President Brett Dean as Donald Trump, who, true to Trump form, had to be the center of attention by jumping in to the middle of our spirited group to "photo bomb" us! But we have to thank Brett for letting us all dress up and provide some extra chuckles for our customers every Halloween!)

Mystery! Thank you to everyone who signed up for our Friday, November 20, Mystery Trip. Offering this was an "experiment" during Club 50's 20th anniversary year, so we are thrilled that we sold out on the first day of sign-up ... and that we were able to get a few more spots for nearly everyone on the waiting list! We still can't reveal the trip, but you'll certainly find out in the next Club 50 eNewsletter!

Surprise! We have a surprise ... or maybe two ... in store for all of you joining us for our Club 50 Annual Holiday Party on either Wednesday, December 2 or 9, at The Westin Waltham-Boston. (Please note: Deadline for sign up was late last week, but if you would like to go, please bring in your form ASAP.) And you can thank the Club 50 Advisory Board for the ideas!

Mystery! Speaking of the Advisory Board, Karen and I met with them just last week to start making plans for the 2016 trips (beyond the previously announced trips to Hawaii and Italy). What's in store? Well, nothing is written in stone, but we plan to look into overnight trips including the Hudson River Valley, Saratoga, Tanglewood, and a New York City encore, as well as day trips including Martha's Vineyard, the Cape Cod Dinner Train, Rhode Island lighthouses – and we would like to do a Mystery Trip again! All will be revealed at the 2016 Travel Seminar, so mark your calendars for January 28!

Surprise! And one last Advisory Board note: Who will be our next three new members? We put out the call in the last Club 50 eNewsletter and received several responses, but please feel free to let us know if you're interested! If you love to travel, want to share ideas on trips and other Club 50 events, and have time to meet with us about four times a year, this could be the Board for you!

Karen and I look forward to seeing you very soon on a trip or at the party!

Goodspeed Is Good Fun!

JoAnn Agrillo, Kitty Tulipano, Donna Power, and Maureen Mello (left to right) had a beautiful late-fall-foliage view of the Connecticut River while they dined at the Gelston House Restaurant in East Haddam before taking just a few steps next door to the Goodspeed Opera House for the first-rate A Wonderful Life! And we're not too proud to admit that we all teared up at the musical version of the holiday classic – for which Goodspeed lived up to its two regional Tony Awards and for also being known as “The Home of the American Musical.”
